

JOIN SANSBOC

The South African National Small Bus Operators Council (SANSBOC) was established by the National Department of Transport as an official representative of Small Bus Operators to drive transformation and economic empowerment.

BENEFITS TO MEMBERS

Members of SANSBOC become part of a formal and nationally recognised body that represents small bus operators at national and local level. Some of the benefits for members are being part of the set-aside commuter subsidy contracts, free training programmes and discounted services such as bookkeeping, fuel, spares, tyres, and other value chain related commodities.
